CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Second Appeal No.ll67 of 2005
with
Civil Application No. l644 of 2005

Office Notes,Office Memorandum of Coram appearence,Court's Orders & Directors and Registrar's Order	Court or Judge's Order

Mr H V Bhadbhade for the appellant
Mr K S Bapat for respondent no.4
CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J.

DATED l9.l.2006

P.C.

. Heard the learned counsel for the parties. In view of the finding reached by the court below that the appellant did not possess necessary educational qualification, which in my view is the correct finding, no substantial question of law will arise for consideration. The fact that the appellant possessed minimum qualification provided under the Rules can be no consideration to take a view that higher qualification provided under the advertisement was illegal. As the advertisement was not challenged and the appellant who has participated in the procedure for appointment it is too late in the day for him to complain that inclusion of the name of the respondent was illegal.

. Hence appeal as well as the civil application are dismissed.
